SALUTATORY

Parents, teachers, and friends, we the Senior Class of 1949 wish to extend to you at this time, a most cordial and sincere welcome.

We hope you will enjoy this class night exercise we have planned for you tonight. As we go back over our years of the '49, we want to bring to you some of the memories which have made our four years of High School at Larwill so wonderful.

We have prepared four scenes for you tonight. First, we have the one which starts us off on our long journey to California and to gold. Second, there is the campfire scene where we dance and are gay. Third, we are in the desert and getting homesick, which provides an ideal time for reminiscing. Lastly, we have arrived in California, and are now seeking our fortunes.

I wish to say "Thanks" in behalf of all the Seniors, to you, our parents, who have made it possible for us to reach our goal, and to you teachers who have guided us through these twelve years.

Tomorrow morning we are leaving on our trip north. This means quite a bit to us, for it's the one big thing we've worked for through our four years of High School.

Thursday night we will leave old LHS to embark on new roads of life. No matter where we go or what we do, I'm sure we'll never forget the big and little things that happened at Larwill during our school life.

Now, again, on behalf of this Senior Class, I wish to bid you "welcome" and hope you will enjoy our program.

Lois Myers

PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1949

Once upon a time there was a class at Larwill High called "The Class of '49." But that was a long time ago. It is now 50 years later, in 1999, and the '49ers are having their annual class reunion. We are gathered on the site where gold was discovered--a gold filling from someones tooth. Everyone is roasting hot dogs, toasting marshmallows, telling stories, and reminiscing. The man standing on the soap box giving the loud oration is just Sheldon Marrs. He is running for United States Senator from Indiana. He has been trying to get elected for the last 20 years. It could be, one of the Larwill boys will filibuster in Congress yet.

My, I wonder who that poor, weatherbeaten, old man is, with the long white beard? He surely doesn't belong in this class reunion. Why, yes, he does. It is Dwight Deeter--guess he gave up shaving altogether. Because of his undying ambition and prompt punctuality in school, he has been a nightwatchman for a Burlesque Show for 30 years. I'll agree, he's seen many changes in those years.

Remember those four girls that used to chum around together in school? There was Connie Smith, Lois Myers, Hartman, Marlouise Schuh, and Vera Fritz. They are sitting over there by the fire toasting marshmallows. Let's go over and see what they've been doing all these years. Connie tells us she is a successful radio and recording artist. Her stage name is "Hill-Billie-Millie," Your favorite singer of the homespun ballads America loves best.

You'd hardly recognize Lois--she has lost her school girl figure, and she is pretty busy with that family of 33 children. Her ambition was to have a large family--we never dreamed how large it would be.

The lady in the long, mannish-ill-fitting dress is Marlouise. She is a Home Economics Teacher at Larwill Abnormal College. It seems she could never get away from the long-styled clothes of Senior Days.

Vera has just confessed that she is the author who writes those horror-love-imagination thrillers that the teachers take away from students, mothers burn and ministers preach about-all under another name of course. (You can see why this prophecy is as it is).

That peroxide blonde with the frizzled hair is Betty Bohnstedt. She has lost her eyesight from a wreck, several years ago, in her high-powered limousine. She is being helped around by her seeing-eye rooster, Crusoe. Lately she has been touring the country giving lectures on "Why Should You Be Rich, When You Have To Pay Income Tax?"

Betty's best girl friend, Phyllis Eley is a waitress in the famous Drive-In near Dallas, Texas. She has received so many large tips, that she is planning on buying half-interest in the place.

It looks like business is not as good as it could be for Richard Mitchell. He is carrying a little black box with him. In school, he was always talking about being a veterinarian--probably has the little black box in case of an emergency call. "What's that? You're not a Doctor? A shoe shiner in the lobby of the Waldorf-Astoria." Keep them shining, Dick--you sure had us fooled.

Sounds like a car driving up. Perhaps more of our classmates arriving. It looks like a taxi from the Lynch Checkered Cab Company. Lyle Lynch as you know, is the owner of the great concern, call PUSHUP 1-2-3-4. We're glad that Lyle brought some of our classmates with him. There is Betty Waldeck and her newly acquired husband, Les. They have just rocketed back from Mars, where they have been raising Uranium beams for the Air Rocket Force.

Stepping from the taxi is another distinguished member of our class; Father Leolan Pressler. Since graduation from the Cemetery, he has been a missionary in the wilds of Australia. Leolan always was good at preaching on the Christian way of life, and we know he has greatly increased the number of civilized people in that country.

Out steps another classmate, robed in white ermine, and decked with rubies of the rarest quality. It is Gloria Myers, of Syracuse fame. While taking her vacation around the world on a cattle boat, she met a rich matador, whom she married. They are now living on one of the large estates along the shores of beautiful Larwill Lake.

These beautiful million dollar estates, by the way, are owned by James C. Creager. Jim saw great possibilities in making Larwill Lake one of the leading vacation spots in the country. He became a millionaire overnight and put Larwill on the vacation map.

Lavon Kitson is on the Larwill Abnormal Teaching Staff. He has charge of the music department. His arrangement of, "Louie, Drop That Gun," with the Larwill Philharmonic Symphony has been recorded by Gum Label and is highly popular with the older set.

Norene Hull is a rhumba dance instructor in the "Shake--Don't Break It," Dance Studio. She guarantees to teach you how to rhumba in two easy lessons for only $50.

Along the lazy stream, we see two lovers strolling hand in hand, under the moonlight. From the distance it looks like Flossie Stidham, long ago, Mrs. Gene Souder, and her husband. Both are working for the Joe Lewis Modeling Agency. Flossie is a beautician, noted for her unique methods of dying models hair. Gene is a photographer specializing in models in Chinese bathing suits.

If anyone has the inclination to get married, step right this way--Justice of the Peace, Noel Medley, is with us. He always was romantically inclined, and now manages a harem.

Lola Joy Western came to the reunion. I would think that Lola, having lived in the White House all these years, would hardly consider a class reunion an affair that would require her presence. After all, being chief scrub woman in the President's Mansion is quite a noble line of work.

Margaret Marker, on the other hand, is in quite a different kind of work. She has been doing extensive research in Washington for her new book, "The Practical Way To Study Civics." During her Senior year, she was getting many ideas on how the new book should be written.

That poor, stooped old man with the red toupee, certainly looks familar. Why, of course, that is Charles Heintzelman, Jr. He's been a street cleaner in Charleston, West Virginia since he graduated from school. He has tried innumerable times to be promoted to sidewalk cleaner, but can never quite make the curb.

Here comes Ronnie Wolfe and Lynn Klingaman up from the beach, after a vigorous swim. Lynn had decided to live a hermit's life. It must give him much joy to be alone; he is operating a filling station in the midst of Death Valley. Ronnie Wolfe is playing character parts in the movies. At the Senior Class Play, a talent scout heard him and signed him with the Sure Failing Studios, with a life time contract.

The happily married couple doing the new fangled dance is the former Barbara Kistler and her midget husband. They met while Barbara was chief cook and bottle washer in a lumber camp in the North Woods. Her husband was a tree-topper.

Who makes the blood curdling scream in the middle of the night? Whose shadow moves in the moonlight? Lock your door--"The Beast With Ten Bloody Fingers" is on the prowl. This is the opening speech of the thriller-diller-killer-mystery-murder on the radio. It stars two members of this class Albert "Frankenstein" Bohnstedt, who plays the leading role of the Beast Murderer. His bloody right-hand assistant is Digger O'White, alias Robert White. He is the friendly grave-digger, whose favorite motto is, "My work begins, when your life ends".

Over by the rock flexing his muscles, is Richard, "The Turtle Tamer" Schuman. Soon after he finished school he captured the famous 'Busco Turtle. It was twice as large as had been anticipated and became quite an attraction.

That accounts for 26 of the original Class of '49, but where is our missing member? Listen! I hear the soft bray of donkeys coming along the trail. That must be Grace Strattan.

It sounds like she might be driving up with some of her thoroughbreds. When she spoke of thoroughbreds in school, we all supposed she meant horses, but you can't be right all the time.

I wonder who the old woman is she has with her. She hobbles on a cane and a crutch. It's none other than our Senior Class Sponsor--Miss Esarey.

Vera Fritz

CLASS MOTTO

We, of the Senior Class of '49 have chosen as our motto, "Knowledge Comes but Wisdom Lingers".

Throughout our school days we have been acquiring knowledge, learning by doing, and preparing for the future. Each course has strengthened us, developing wisdom, which is the ability to use what we have acquired so as to be of value to ourselves and to others.

And so as we go out into the world we know that the wisdom gained from our education the past twelve years will stay with us and help us be successful in our future.

Richard Schuman

CLASS COLORS

We, the Senior Class of 1949 have chosen the colors green and white for our class colors. Green like the green in jewels of jade and emerald, stands for growth and development. White is the color of pure snow, and stands for purity.

We will, in the future, strive to keep growing and developing. We shall always strive to build toward the better and higher things in life.

Charles Heintzelman, Jr.

"THE CLASS OF 49"
(Oh' Susanna)

Oh, we started out twelve years ago
The class of '49,
And we know for thee, Old Larwill High,
That we will someday pine.

In our Freshmen year we had our fun,
We couldn't settle down,
But now that we are proud Seniors,
We're really goin' to town.

When we were silly Sophomores,
We just were drifting through,
Except for our valedictorian,
Marlouise Jean Schuh.

When we were jolly Juniors,
Miss Fowler was our guide,
She pushed us through some trying times,
And never let us slide.

Now that we have reached our goal,
We're happy as can be,
We hope that to this big wide world,
We can find the key.

Chorus

Old Larwill High, We're 'bout to Leave you now,
We are off to seek our fortunes,
In this old world somehow.

CLASS POEM

The times run out, the works all done
We've teased and laughed and had our fun.
We've worried the teachers beyond repair
And hazed the Freshmen without thought or care.

We've been taught to fight for what we believe
We've been taught to climb, our goal to achieve.
And on this ladder that leads to success
We'll remember each failure and happiness.

We are leaving the game, far better than before
And adding to the "Graduates" 29 more.
Our time well spent, we'll ne're want to revise
For indeed, these have been the best years of our lives.

Grace Strattan

"As the twig is bent, so is the tree inclined."

HISTORY OF THE FORTY-NINER'S

In the year of '45 we started our long trek across the mountains and deserts to our goal, California. We had heard whispered rumors that there was gold in them 'thar hills. There were people in our party from all parts of the county when we started our Freshman year. From Richland Township there was; Harold Blanchard, Betty Bohnstedt, Martha Cramer, Dean Eberly, Phyllis Eley, Vera Fritz, Betty Gable, Charles Heintzelman, Jr., Rex King, Barbara Kistler, Melvin Kistler, Lester Menzie, Harold Mitchell, Richard Mitchell, Mary Musselman, Lois Myers, Richard Pichard, Thelma Ray, Richard Schuman, Mary Schrader, Marlouise Schuh, Connie Smith, Robert Shock, Flossie Stidham, Linda Stidham, Grace Strattan, Betty Waldeck, and Gene Souder. From Troy came sixteen more people; Neva Bills, Albert Bohnstedt, Dwight Deeter, Garnet Hearn, Norene Hull, Sheldon Marrs, Lynn Klingaman, Margaret Marker, Lavon Kitson, James Folk, Donna McCullough, Noel Medley, Gloria Myers, Phyllis Rose, Lola Western, and Robert Watson. One man from Columbia Township was James Creager. Before we started our long journey through high school, we held a meeting to elect officers to govern this Larwill caravan. As President we elected Lavon Kitson; Vice-President, Rex King; Sec't-Treasurer, Lois Myers; and Miss Arnold, Sponsor.

We were sorry to lose six of our party the first year. Richard Pichard, Mary Musselman, James Folk, Donna McCullough, Phyllis Rose, and Melvin Kistler moved to other schools or found work.

As Freshman, the girls won the inter-class tourney, the first Freshman girls ever to win this title in Larwill High School. This ended the first year of our journey. So far the trip had been fairly easy, but now we are after a higher education as Sophomores. Three new men joined our party for the Sophomore year. Robert White came from Indianapolis, Robert Bridges from Fort Wayne and George Klingaman from Elkhart.

Our group had several people interested in sports. Dwight Deeter won the Local Cross Country Run and Robert Shook was awarded the free-throw medal. Charles Heintzelman, Jr. represented Larwill in the Dramatic Reading Contest in Columbia City. Near Christmas, George Klingaman moved back to Elkhart and Robert Bridges went back to Fort Wayne. We chose Miss Pittenger as our Sponsor.

In September of '47 we crossed a broad river and were engaged in Junior activities. We were down to 32 students in our class. Betty Gable, Garnet Hearn, Martha Cramer, and Linda Stidham decided to leave the caravan to marry and remain in the old home town. Thelma Ray moved to Mount Morris, Illinois; Flossie Stidham left for Atwood to attend school;

Dean Eberly, Robert Watson, Harold Mitchell, and Neva Bills found work. Robert Bridges returned again from Fort Wayne and Ronald Wolfe joined us from Wolfe Lake.

Harold Blanchard won the Local Cross Country Run; the girls and boys were runners up in the inter-class tourney. The boys won. Phyllis Eley represented Larwill at the Dramatic Reading Contest. Charles Heintzelman, Jr., Albert Bohnstedt and Betty Bohnstedt learned speeches, also.

On October 22, a three-act, mystery-comedy, "The Green Midnight," was presented. It was directed by Miss Fowler, our Junior Sponsor. On April 26, we presented a big shin-dig for the Seniors in the gymnasium. We used as our theme, "Life On a Southern Plantation." This ended our Junior year and we were ready for the last year of journey.

At last, in the fall of '48 we were ready to cross the last of the barriers, and gold was not far off. We had left a lot of members back along the trail, but only success and riches lay before us. Rex King left us to settle on a farm; Robert White was elected to replace Rex as our Vice--President. After a few weeks of school, Harold Blanchard and Robert Shook left us to work. Mary Schrader was married during the summer. Flossie Stidham decided to return from Atwood and finish school at Larwill. Near Christmas, Lyle Lynch came from Elmhurst. Lester Menzie did not have enough credits to graduate with us this year.

Early in October it was decided to again publish an annual. The sales campaign took place in January, which totaled 150 subscriptions, and work on the annual was begun. Mr. Bremmercamp of Robert's Studio took the Senior's pictures, October 15. Group pictures and grade class pictures were taken in January.

In November a magazine sale was sponsored to earn money for the trip in the spring. An all-school dance was held April 8, Thirteen members of the class rehearsed and presented the class play, "You'll Die Laughing," on March 31 and April 1. It was a huge success. We cleared $90. on it.

March 11 found both boys and girls playing in the inter-class tourney. For the first time in years the second team defeated the first team, but by a very close score. Dwight Deeter, Sheldon Marrs, Gene Souder, and Lavon Kitson were presented with gold honor sweaters, each having four blue stripes, indicating the number of years played on the varsity team.

The Junior-Senior Reception was given April 30. The gymnasium was transformed into a Dutch scene to comply with the theme, "Windmills of Holland."

Class Night was on Friday, May 6, in the assembly. The theme was the California Gold Rush. Every member of the class was a forty-niner--Eighteen Forty-Niner, that is.

The last week of school, May 7-11 was spent very enjoyably seeing the sights and scenery in Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Ontario, and Michigan. Niagara Falls, going through the customs, coming back through Canada, and visiting the Ford plant and Greenfield Village near Detroit were highlights of the trip.

Senior Sunday Service was held Sunday afternoon, May 1. The graduating class had charge of the services. Six class members spoke, the mixed chorus sang two numbers, and the boys chorus two numbers. Graduation was Thursday night, May 12. Lyle Tucker, President of International Business College was the speaker. Mr. Yoder presented the Diplomas. The band and an ensemble furnished music, Seniors, the opening and closing prayers.

CLASS FLOWER

We, the class of '49, have chosen the Red Carnation as our flower. The carnation is a sturdy plant and the red color stands for bravery.

Like the carnation, we have developed into sturdy young people. We have under gone changes and have learned to be good citizens of our country and community. We will be the future leaders of our country and shall keep striving toward greater things. We will not be content with things as they are but will try to accomplish better things for the future.

As the carnation grew in strength, we have grown in knowledge. Our education will help us live in the world with a better understanding.

VALEDICTORY

Parents, teachers, and friends, we the forty-niners of Larwill High, are travelers on the high road of learning and tonight we pause at a sharp bend in the way. Until now we have shared the comfort and companionship of a closely knit group. From this point on, there are as many small paths as there are individuals.

We are turning our backs on the planned life of the classrooms at Larwill. From here forward, we make our own decisions; our coming and going untimed by the bell; our only discipline, our conscience.

Childhood and early youth are in the past. They appear formless and disorganized as they fade into the distance. We have shed them like used, outgrown garments, keenly aware that now more will be expected and less forgiven us. Those shortcomings and lapses, overlooked in the very young, have no place in the adult world.

Our approaches to life's demands must be geared to the swift era in which we are living and the first step in this adjustment is to make certain that our thinking is clear. In an age when man will travel faster than the speed of sound, there is no place for slow mental reactions.

It would be a disadvantage for us to consider ourselves "educated" simply because we have completed one small phase of the endless process of learning. Everyone should strive to keep aglow the flame of "discontent" which inspires and beckons you to go forward. With but one life to live, one set of energies to use, it is the duty of each graduate to thoughtfully consider by what definite means he can best further and contribute to humanity.

Our lives should not be considered as level roads, but as roads reaching upward toward our goals in life. We should be determined to live our lives each day as we would climb a steep mountain, slowly but steadily giving an occasional glance toward the top to keep the goal in view. We should take time out for amusement when we may and lend a hand when necessary to a fellow climber who finds the going too rough. May we travel cheerfully, confident that the peak, when reached, will be a worthy climax to the long steep journey we will have completed.

We realize we could not have completed even the first lap of our journey without the understanding and encouragment of our thoughtful parents and patient teachers.

I am sure that all of us wish to express our thanks to each and everyone of you for being our guests tonight and for making possible this educational stepping-stone to our future careers.

Marlouise Schuh

PRESENTATION OF SCEPTRE

The Senior Class of 1949, present you with this Sceptre, which represents good sportsmanship, friendship, and high ideals.

We have gained good sportsmanship through the school years with the generous help of our teachers and parents.

We have made many new friends by participating in athletics and school games. We have learned co-operation and team play well under our instructors.

Our morale of living has been raised by the examples put before us by our teachers. We have had assembly programs and outside speakers to give us ideas of the life we will have to live.

We, the Senior Class, sincerely hope that you will be able to live up to the Sceptre as we have tried to do.

Lavon Roger Kitson

ACCEPTANCE OF SCEPTRE

In the name of the Junior Class I accept the Sceptre with deep appreciation and the hope of great success as you have had. We will guard and treasure it as you and the previous classes have. We wish to congradulate you for the fine work you have done in the past years.

You have set good examples of sportsmanship as shown in your participation in basketball, softball and track. You have shown us others the spirit of co-operation, as shown here by this program tonight, You have sponsored school dances and given assembly programs. You have shown yourselves leaders of this school.

You have done your best to set high standards and ideals for the rest of us to live up to. You may be sure, we will try our best to live up to the high standards you have set, We wish to thank you for the Sceptre and wish you a success in your future years. Again we thank you most sincerely.

JUNIOR HISTORY

The Freshman Class was started, August, 1946, with forty-three members. Those coming from Troy were Susan Wolfe, Isabel Werstler, Phil Groves, Bill Kessie, Paul Bills, Alvin Martz and Forrest Van Voorst. Those coming from Larwill, Richland Township were Richard Barnes, Harlow Barney, Marjory Barney Kenneth Boggs, Shirley W. Brunner, Louise Buntain, Cloyce Burnsworth, Harold Cramer, Stanley Duggins, Nancy Evans, Carol Gaff, La Dial Hawn, Carroll Holycross, Eloise Keirn, Willadene Kemery, Vivian Kile, Robert Landis, Beverly Menzie, Marilee Miller, Marilyn Miller, Jolene Overmyer, Mary Lou Pickard, Robert Reid, Treva Rubrake, James Ruckman, Charles Simon, Jerry Smith, Rex Ward, Dwight Widman, and Joyce Wilkinson.

Three brand-new members added to the class were Mary Jennings, and Paul Creager from Columbia Township, and Sue Ann White from Indianapolis.

During the year two members withdrew and one joined the class. Kenneth Boggs and Mary Lou Pickard moved away, and James Ferraro came to us from South Bend.

The class party was held at the Community Building on September 27, 1946. The second party was held on March 21, 1947. Mr. Holycross was chosen class sponsor at the second class meeting.

Those taking part in Band were Joyce Wilkinson, Beverly Menzie, Nancy Evans, and Rex Ward. Beverly went to the Fort Wayne Band Contest representing Larwill.

The class officers for the next four years were chosen: Rex Ward, President; Mary Jennings, Vice President; Isabel Werstler, Secretary; Louise Buntain, Reporter; and Treva Rubrake, Historian.

The Sophomore year started with thirty-nine members. Carolyn Harris came to us from Bluffton, Martha Baxter from Watseka, Illinois, and John Fulk from South Whitley. During the year, Martha Baxter moved to South Whitley, Cloyce Burnsworth quit in October, James Ferraro went to South Bend and Bill Kessie, Jr. quit school to work, thus leaving thirty-seven members.

Miss Jean S. Plummer was chosen class sponsor for 1947 and 1948.

The first class party was held in Columbia City at the Shelter House, October 31, 1947. The second party was held on March 19, 1948, at the home of Susan Wolfe.

Those representing the class in the oratorical contest were Louise Buntain, Eloise Keirn, and Jolene Overmyer. Eloise Keirn won for the class and placed second in the local contest.

The school year of 1948-1949 has seen a marked decrease in the membership of the Junior class. A class that started with forty-three members as Freshmen, lost three during the Sophomore year. Thus far in our Junior year, we have seen eight of our classmates leave our ranks.

During the previous summer the ring of wedding bells lured Beverly Menzie, Mary Jennings, and Ina Wilson from our number. Within the year, Susan Wolfe has joined them in this venture.

Several members, Phil Groves, Harold Cramer, Treva Rubrake, La Dial Hawn, Charles Simon, and Dwight Widman, started out on the years' sea adventure, but feeling themselves unable to endure the trials and storms with us, left our company to seek for life and its riches elsewhere.

Our young and ambitious participants in the Cross Country Run this year were Harlow Barney and Paul Creager.

Eloise Keirn, Louise Buntain and Jolene Overmyer represented our class in the local dramatid reading contest held Thursday, March 24, 1949, in front of the assembly. Louise Buntain was chosen to represent the school in the county contest at Columbia City, and won sixth place.

The class, as a whole, were very ambitious in the Junior year. At the first class meeting, Miss Norma Fowler was chosen as class sponsor. On October 28-29 the Juniors gave their class play, called "Just Ducky." The characters were: Eloise Keirn, Mrs. Maxwell; Jerry Smith, Mr. Maxwell; Carroll Holycross, Betty Lou Maxwell; Marjory Barney, Connie Maxwell; Louise Buntain, Bernadine Smith; John Fulk, Wilbur Maxwell; Shirley Brunner, Aunt Mary; Rex Ward, Hercules Nelson; Robert Reid, Craig Moore; Jimmy Ruckman, Mr. Moore; Stanley Duggins, Mr. Marshall. Eloise Keirn was elected Vice President of the class to fill the vacancy left by Mary Jennings. At a recent class meeting, the class selected their flower, colors, and motto. The flower, Tulip; the colors, Maroon and white; the motto, "Not finished, just begun." There was no class party the first semester, because the playcast went to see another play at Avilla.

The Junior girls, defending champions, were again winners of the girls inter-class tourney. The Senior girls were runners-up.

The Juniors, at the end of this year, are working for a bigger and better reception.

PURPOSE OF THE FTA

The FTA movement grew from the Horace Mann Centennial. The first high school club was organized in 1937.

It works in both high schools and colleges. The high school groups are prevocational and college preparatory and are known as FTA clubs. College groups are definitely professional and are known as Chapters.

The main purpose of the high school clubs is to induct the spirit of the teaching profession into the student before actually preparing for it. In this way the prospective teacher will be impressed with the dignity and importance of his future work and is given the vision of his responsibilities and privileges.

Membership in these junior groups, therefore, will help in the attainment of these desired ends.

There are many projects which an FTA Club may undertake. A few of them are: substitute teaching, Sunday School teaching, programs, beautifying campus, observing American Education Week, and making a study of public schools and their needs.

Louise Buntain

CHORUS

The High School Chorus has fifty-six members this year. There is a mixed chorus and a girls' chorus.

In November the chorus sang for Visitation Day.

They appeared at South Whitley on March fourth in the County Music Festival.

On February 17 the chorus presented the operetta, "Polished Pebbles." This was given to benefit the hot lunch program.

The entire chorus sang at the Senior Sunday Services on May 1.

Those receiving letter this year are: Margaret Marker, Connie Smith, Betty Lou Bohnstedt, Grace Strattan, Flossie Stidham, Charles Heintzelman, Jr., and Albert Bohnstedt.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY

The officers for the year 1948-49 were Connie Ann Smith, President; Marilyn Miller, Vice President Betty Lou Waldeck, Treasurer; Margie Barney,corresponding Secretary; and Elizabeth Gale, Recording Secretary. The sponsors are Miss Margaret Mathews and Miss Monzelle Thomson.

The Sunshine girls and Hi-Y boys opened the year with the annual Cake Walk.

We raised money to send to the Riley Hospital byelecting a Basketball Queen. The queen was Betty Waldeck and her attendants were Margie Barney, Bonnie Bohnstedt and Helen Gregory. It was the first year this idea was usedand it was very successful.

The Sunshine and Hi-Y sponsored a Valentines' Dance. An orchestra came from Columbia City to play for us.

The SSS Banquet for Mother, Daughters and Ideal Ladies was a feature of the Spring season.

The Sunshine Society sends two of their officers to camp each summer.

HI-Y HISTORY

The Hi-Y began this year with a total of twenty-eight members. Ten new members were accepted at the initiation services.

The Hi-Y officers for this year were: Richard Mitchell, President; Lester Menzie, Vice-president; Jerry Smith, Secretary-treasurer; Tom Micheal, Chaplin; Max Myers, Reporter; and Dwight Deeter, Sargeant-at-arms.

During the year the Hi-Y took part in the Sunshine Cake Walk and also sponsored one of their own after the Coesse basketball game.

The Hi-Y helped sponsor the Valentines' Dance February 19.

BAND

There are seven seventh-graders, four eighth-graders, six freshmen, one sophomore, one junior, and two seniors in our School Band, making a total enrollment of nineteen. Most of these students were beginners last year.

About the middle of the basketball season, Mrs. Beard, our director, decided that the band had improved enough since the beginning of the year to play for basketball games, so we played at four games.

On March 4, we had several representatives in the County Musical Festival, held at the South Whitley Gymnasium.

The band will furnish the Processional and Recessional for the Seniors at the Graduation exercises on May 12. They will play "Angelus", a choral, at Graduation.

ANNUAL

Toward the middle of the school year the Senior Class decided to publish an annual. It is put out for the purpose of offering to the general public a school yearbook containing an individual picture of every child in school, plus group pictures of all organizations and their histories.

There are twelve members on the Annual Staff. They agree to devote all of the time that will be needed to making and completing the annual.

If each member successfully completes his work at the end of the school year they will be presented with a bronze key bearing the words Annual Staff.

HOME RUN

Our school paper, the Home Run, is published bi-weekly, for the purpose of informing the students and community of the activities of our school: There are 20 students and one advisor, Miss Esarey, on the Home Run Staff. The awards for the Home Run are a bronze medal with the word "Staff", a printing press and the blue letter "L".

CROSS COUNTRY

The Local Cross Country Run which was held in November had more participants than in past years. Lynn Klingaman finished first, Paul Creager second and Gene Souder third. Larwill also had six entries in the County Run in which Lynn Klingaman finished second. Larwill lacked only a very small margin of winning the Cross Country Trophy.

SECOND TEAM

The second team didn't have very many wins this season but they did gain much experience. The team consisted of a great percentage of Freshman who are expected to come back very strong next year.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Varsity basketball team won 5 out of 16 scheduled games. The Varsity squad consisted of 4 Seniors, 2 Juniors, and 4 Sophomores. They went to the Semi-Finals in the County Tourney, and were defeated by South Whitley. At the Warsaw Sectional they were defeated by Beaver Dam, 53-47. The Free Throw Medal was won by Sheldon Marrs.

The boys that received awards were: Sheldon Marrs, Gene Souder, Lavon Kitson and Dwight Deeter received Honor sweaters for their Major letter. Minor letters were given to Robert White, Harlow Barney, Rex Ward, John Fulk, Warren Cos, Max Myers, Tom Michael, Gale North, Bill Graham, Gail Helfrich, Larry Wilkinson, Reynold Juillerat, Russell Medley, Joe Medley and Roger Schuman.

BOOSTER CLUB

The organization of a Booster Club for the support of the basketball team was found to be desirable this year. There were Students from the Jr.-high school in the club. During the year Penny Dances were sponsored after the ball games to earn money for new records.
